Vox Network Consultants powered by Pertemps

INTRODUCTION

Attracting, hiring and continuously engaging top talent has never been more challenging.

Vox Network Consultants was created as a specialist RPO/MSP solutions provider for technical & engineering companies in a diverse array of industries.

We understand that the success of any organisation will be defined by the people it employs. Our stand-out outsourcing and consulting services come with almost 50 years collective experience demonstrated across multiple sectors. We partner with clients to help them achieve thier potential through total talent acquisition and management.

We adopt innovative, scalable and dynamic processes to reshape how organisations source, engage and retain talent.

In today's candidate-led labour market, the process of hiring requires right-fit technology, innovation and analytical insights that support proven methodologies.

We are highly trusted by clients and candidates and form part of a wider network of recruitment specialists group companies that provide unrivalled knowledge.

Our continued engagement with leading specialist technical and engineering companies ensures Vox Network Consultants partner industry experts for all their recruitment and on-boarding services.

Now a part of Pertemps Network Group, our increased capability gives us the infrastructure to exceed even the largest technical suppliers whilst being as being as bespoke as an internal recruitment function.

Pertemps Network Group lives and breathes recruitment and has been operating across the technical and engineering sectors since it was established in 1961. The business has grown to become the country's largest independently-owned recruitment company.
